Bible Conference Planned For Family Participation

The third annual summer Bible conference has been planned for July 23-29 with the theme of "Living Victoriously." The speakers include Dr. J. Allen Blair, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, N.C., and the founder and director of the international broadcast, Glad Tidings; and the Rev. Ian Hay, Sudan Interior Mission's home director for North America.

Dr. Blair is well known for his ministry of the Word of God at Bible and missionary conferences both at home and abroad. He has spoken at the Moody Founder's Week Conference, Canadian Keswick, Midwest Keswick, New Jersey Keswick, Southern Keswick, Camp of the Woods, Winona Lake and various other conference centers. He is also the author of many helpful and instructive tracts, booklets and books.

Glad Tidings is a Bible-teaching ministry heard weekly in some areas and Monday through Friday in others. Presently the program is being aired on 50 stations in the United States, Panama, the Philippine Islands, Ecuador and Puerto Rico.

Dr. Blair was graduated from the Moody Bible Institute, Bradley University, and the Presbyterian Seminary of the University of Dubuque. In 1953, the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was bestowed upon him by Wheaton College.

Ian Hay '50 and his wife, the former June Bell '51, both of whom are Bryan graduates, have been missionaries with S.I.M. in Nigeria since 1952. Mr. Hay was also graduated

Florida Pastors Are Commencement Speakers

Two Florida pastors, Dr. Willis E. Garrett and Dr. Henry Dahlberg, Jr., both of Miami, are the speakers for commencement activities concluding Bryan's thirty-sixth year. Dr. Garrett will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m., and Dr. Dahlberg will give the address for the graduating class on Tuesday morning at 10:00 a.m. Both of these men are pastors of thriving churches, Dr. Garrett of Calvary Church (non-denominational), and Dr. Dahlberg of First Presbyterian, the home church of William Jennings Bryan in his Florida years. The class of 1966 numbers 55, of whom three completed their work and received their diplomas earlier this year, 41 will receive degrees on May 31, and 11 are scheduled to finish their degrees this summer.

Bryan Named Beneficiary Of Chattanooga Estate

In a will probated in Chattanooga, Tenn., April 27, Bryan College was named beneficiary of the estate of the late J. E. Summers, a Red Bank businessman who died April 19. The estate is to be held in trust to provide specified benefits for C. J. Summers, the decedent's father, and for two longtime and faithful employees, Miss Hannah Roberts and John C. McGee. It appears that a portion of the estate will come to the college on the death of the father and the remainder on the decease of the two employees. The handwritten will was dated May 7, 1960.

As far as has been learned, no one knew in advance about the contents of the will. Although Mr. Summers made a gift some years ago to an Advisory Committee drive and was known by many people in Bryan's constituency, his interest in Bryan was completely unknown to the college. Since his death it has been learned that he drove up on the campus periodically with his father. The value of the estate, which is mostly in real estate, is not fully known at this time. The newspapers have estimated it at $550,000, a figure regarded as minimal by some. Mr. Summers was a man of varied business interests and for years operated the Summers Chevrolet Co. of Red Bank.

Dr. W. Garrett

Dr. Garrett is a graduate of Maryville (Tenn.) College and Dallas Theological Seminary. During World War II he served as chaplain in the air force. He is founder and president of Miami Bible College, a council member of the Word of Life Fellowship, and member of the board of the South America Indian Mission. Calvary Church is a strong center of evangelical Christian testimony in the Miami area. One of Dr. Garrett's associates at Miami Bible College is Bryan graduate Charles Smith '56, who serves as registrar and teacher.

Dr. Dahlberg is a native of Youngstown, Ohio. He attended Miami University at Oxford, Ohio, was graduated from Hiram (O.) College, and holds the B.D. degree from Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary. During World War II he served in

Summer Itinerary for Gospel Messengers

Bryan friends in the areas in which the Gospel Messengers will be traveling can help fill in the open dates in the itinerary. Many of the dates listed as "open" have been offered, but the engagement has not been confirmed by press time. Anyone who is interested in having the team on one of the open dates should write immediately to the director of public relations. The team is given one day off each week, usually Monday, for rest and catching up on personal matters; however, if anyone can use the team on Monday, the day off can be shifted to another day when the team is in an area where it is difficult to book an open date.

Dr. Karl E. Keefer, Jr., dean of Bryan for the past nine years, has accepted a teaching position with the University of Tennessee and will begin his new work on June 13. With faculty rank of associate professor of educational psychology, he will teach at the UT-Memphis State Center for Advanced Graduate Study on the Memphis State University campus. He will work exclusively with doctoral level students in education. Dr. Keefer's replacement has not yet been announced.

Other faculty changes include the following:

1. Appointment of Bruce C. Meadows, Baltimore, Md., as assistant professor of education, replacing L. Donald Hill, who has resigned to run for superintendent of schools of Rhea County. Mr. Hill has been a member of the faculty since 1959. Mr. Meadows is a graduate of Nyack (N. Y.) Missionary College and holds the master of education degree from Johns Hopkins University. He has taken work at Towson (Md.) State College, Bowling Green (O.) State University, and is currently taking additional work at Johns Hopkins. His teaching specialties are in education and psychology.

2. Appointment of William L. Ketchersid, Spring City, Tenn., as assistant professor of history to replace H. Blair Bentley who will be on a year's leave of absence to complete work for the doctorate at the University of Tennessee. Mrs. Bentley will continue her part-time teaching in English.

3. Resignation of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, who have taught for the past year in the English department, he in speech and she part-time in English composition; the Joneses are returning to Texas, where Mr. Jones will become registrar of Dallas Baptist College, the College with which he was formerly associated when it was located at Decatur, Texas. Their replacements have not yet been announced.

4. Resignation of Thomas W. Beal who is accepting a position with Atlas Chemical Co., as a value and process engineer. Mr. Beal will be located at the Tyner Ordnance Works, Chattanooga. Mr. Arthur Meyer who has been on leave for two years working on the doctorate at the University of Tenn. will return to the faculty next year as associate professor of botany and chemistry.

5. Retirement of Harold Sutton, director of maintenance, who has been a member of the staff since 1958. Austin Higgins, who joined the staff last year, will succeed Mr. Sutton with the title of superintendent of buildings and grounds.

6. Retirement of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Green. Mrs. Green has been dietitian and director of the food service department since 1959. Mr. Green joined the staff in 1961.

7. Resignation of Mrs. Mary McGarvey, who has been assistant professor of education during the past year.

8. Addition of Mr. and Mrs. Melton Paschall of Chattanooga to the house-keeping staff.

Summer Study Projects

Three Bryan faculty members are receiving grants under the Trustee Fund for Faculty Study for summer study projects as follows:

1. Richard Cornelius, assistant professor of English, research on doctoral dissertation at the University of Tennessee.

2. Glenn Liebig, instructor in Spanish, master's program at University of Tennessee.

3. Jack Wells, instructor in physical education and director of athletics, master's program in physical education, Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C.

EXPANDED STUDENT AID FOR 1966-67

Student aid (scholarships or grants, loans, and student employment) will be approximately doubled at Bryan College next academic year. This means that in the face of rising costs (including the cost of approximately $1600 next year) the College will be able to assist its present students more generously and also to assist an additional number of students whose hopes for attending a Christian college will be slim because of lack of funds.

The essential features of the student aid package are as follows:

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT—$50 per month for 10 hours of work per week, $450 for the academic year; more proportionately for students who can work up to the allowed maximum of 15 hours per week.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANTS—$200-$800 per academic year for students whose parents can pay only a fraction or nothing at all toward college expenses; the amount is determined by a formula which takes into account the family assets, the adjusted gross income, and the number of dependent children. For consideration, a student's high school record must show a minimum of C average (a grade point of 1.0 based on a 3.0 scale).

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS—varying amounts to supplement Educational Opportunity Grants and to aid needy students whose academic qualifications are exceptionally high, or whose family income is not low enough to qualify for Educational Opportunity Grants; a high school grade point average of 2.5 is required for honor scholarship, and 1.2 for grant (based on a 3.0 scale).

LOANS—of varying amounts, based on need; low interest rate while student is in school and long-term repayment plans; NDEA loans cancellable in part by service in teaching.

All this means that a student might receive financial help ranging from fractional aid up to practically total aid, depending on demonstrated need and evaluation procedures used by the College.

Time is of essence, as the complete admissions process normally takes a few weeks. The matter cannot be realistically discussed until all required information is on file, including admissions forms, the high school transcript, and satisfactory character references.

YOUR COOPERATION IS SOLICITED IN IDENTIFYING CHRISTIAN YOUNG PEOPLE INCLUDING ATHLETES FOR WHOM FINANCIAL AID MIGHT MAKE COLLEGE POSSIBLE NEXT FALL. Anyone desiring further information and/or application forms should write directly to:

Samuelsen Featured In Elijah Concert

The Bryan concert choir will be assisted by Roy Samuelsen, a guest baritone artist from the Indiana University music staff in the presentation of Mendelssohn's oratorio, ELIJAH, on May 28 as a special feature of the commencement week activities.

This major musical performance is a new undertaking this year for the 40-voice choir under the direction of L. Daryle Worley, head of the music department. Earlier activities included the singing of Ruth Marsden's cantata, THE GLORIOUS TIDINGS, at the fall missionary conference; Handel's MESSIAH at Christmas time; and participating in a ten-day spring concert tour during the spring vacation.

Mr. Samuelsen, a native of Norway, is recognized as a brilliant young baritone, who has sung more than 40 leading roles in opera and oratorio. He has appeared as guest soloist with symphony orchestras in Utah, Denver, Evansville, Louisville, and Indiana University. He holds the Master of Music degree from Indiana University and is continuing his study at IU at the doctoral level while serving on the faculty.

Other soloists for the concert are two members of the choir: Virginia Seguire, contralto, who is college librarian; Faye Smith, soprano, a junior student from St. Petersburg, Fla.; and L. Daryle Worley, tenor.

the Army Signal Corps, spending over three years in the South Pacific. Part of this time was spent in Australia where he began making a collection of Australian books, which may now be the outstanding collection of its kind in the U. S.

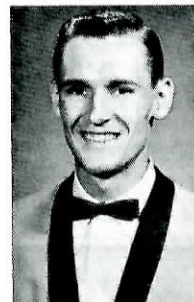

Dr. Dahlberg is a former teacher turned pastor. He taught in public schools in Ohio and taught history and English at the Ecole Internationale, Geneva, Switzerland. In 1955 he came to the First Presbyterian Church in Miami as interim pastor and soon became the full pastor. Under his leadership First Presbyterian has continued its historic witness as a downtown church with significant ministries including a marriage and family counselling service, a Senior Citizen's Club and a single business adult group open to the community. The church has also launched a mission work among the Spanish-speaking residents and aided Cuban refugees in establishing their own church.

Among the community activities in which Dr. Dahlberg has participated are service on the Dade County School Board Committee on School Religion and leadership capacities on the Greater Miami Council of Churches and the Greater Miami Ministerial Association. The doctor of divinity degree was conferred upon him by Tusculum College in recognition of his outstanding accomplishments in Miami.

illness of their son, Alan, Mr. Hay served as acting candidate secretary at the home office. Following the homegoing of Alan, they returned to serve in Nigeria until receiving the new appointment in 1965.

Mr. Hay has chosen the subject, "Abundant Living Results in Fruitful Serving," for his messages at the Bryan conference.

The musical program will be directed by another Bryan graduate, John Rynders '61, who is currently music and youth director at Faith Baptist Church in Orlando, Fla. He will be accompanied also by his wife, the former Joan Dowell, and their two children.

J. Rynders

The children's and youth program for the conference will be coordinated by Mr. Alan Winkler '60, who is head of the Christian education department at Bryan. Morning Bible classes and activity periods are being planned for the various age groups for Monday through Friday. There will also be a special evening program for the elementary grade school children.

A. Winkler

The afternoon conference schedule will provide planned recreation and sightseeing tours to points of interest in the local area, including Chattanooga's Lookout Mountain and the Oak Ridge Atomic Science Museum.

Bible conference folders are available upon request for distribution. Reservations for housing in the air-conditioned dormitories and for home-cooked meals should be placed as early as possible. Conference rates have been kept low to provide an economical family vacation.
